Blind Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus and is healed because of his unwavering faith. His persistence teaches us the power of reaching out in trust. In our community, many are searching for hope and healing. By supporting the Archbishop's Appeal, we can work to become instruments of God's mercy, helping to restore sight to those blinded by despair. Through the support of the mental health ministry within the diocese, those who struggle can find a space to work towards healing. Together, we can echo Bartimaeus's faith, creating a ripple effect throughout our Church and beyond.

Annual Charity Appeal campaign has concluded. Hopefully you were able to buy a book or two. Now we just have to wait for the winners list – who knows, you could be on it.

Draws for the cash prizes totaling $25,000 will be made in Kelvington on November 02nd. Good luck!

The Oktoberfest cabaret took place at Holy Child hall on October 19th.

Certainly, a larger response for ticket sales would have been terrific, however all those that attended had a wonderful time! Good entertainment, dancing, socializing & food – like a grand house party!

Thanks to all of our sponsors that provided silent auction & door prize items (think everyone attending received a prize), including –

Our major sponsor Wappel Construction, Sherwood Co-op, Great Canadian Brewhouse (Eastgate & Grasslands), Mint Smartwash, Leopolds Tavern, Hop & Vine Pub, Great Canadian Oil change, SUDS, Cravings All Day Grill & Stats Sports Lounge, Fuddruckers, Western Pizza (Glencairn), Pizza Hut, Faye Helmerson, Norbert/Yvette Philippe, CAA, Wayne Matt, Access Communications, Richard/Eleanor Selinger, HBI, Birmingham’s Ale House, strEATS

When the opportunity presents, please pass along a ‘thanks’ to these sponsors/donators for their support to this year’s event

The Christmas season (yes, getting closer) will soon be upon us. Many struggle to find that perfect gift or any gift really, for the folks on your list.

Well, how about the K of C Charitable Foundation Cash Calendar.....$25,000 in cash prizes during the year including a final draw on Dec 31 for $10,000!

Bulletin

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Read. Pray. Vote! Saskatchewan Elections

The October election will offer Saskatchewan voters an opportunity to ensure that the province is guided by leaders who will provide practical and efficient leadership with the good of all in mind – including the unborn, the elderly, the young, families, and those who are too often forgotten by society – as well as workers, farmers, business owners, and all future generations. Catholics are called to participate, in accordance with the full measure of talents entrusted to us by God, each of us in accordance with our own well-formed conscience. At a minimum, this means voting prayerfully and wisely after having considered all relevant issues, the positions of each of the candidates and parties, and relevant Church teachings. Many of us are called to even deeper involvement: volunteering at polling stations and other efforts to get out the vote; engaging personally with candidates and party officials; helping to spread good ideas and encourage others to vote properly; or in some cases volunteering to assist candidates or parties – or even putting ourselves forward as candidates.

To assist you with these efforts, you can visit the Catholic Conscience Page at: catholicconscience.org/Canada/Saskatchewan/2024-provincial-election/

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

“And Jesus said to him, ‘Go your way; your faith has made you well.’ And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.” (Mark 10:52)

Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to physically see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. This is hard, but try to focus on the positive and not the negative things in your life. When you focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common. You will see God's active presence in your daily life. You will begin to develop an attitude of gratitude.

Pilgrims of Hope: Together in Mission

Fr. Raymond Lafontaine, a priest of the Archdiocese of Montreal, has been present in the Archdiocese of Regina since May 2024. During this six-month study leave, he has visited numerous parishes and groups across the Archdiocese, meeting with priests, pastoral staff, and lay leaders, observing and learning from the different ways in which we “walk together” as a synodal church in mission. He will be serving as a table facilitator at the 2nd Synodal Assembly in Rome this October, and upon his return, he will lead us in a diocesan study day. What is the Spirit speaking to the Church through the Synod? How far have we progressed along the synodal path, and how can we deepen our commitment to walking together as we live the call to communion, participation, and mission? Fr. Raymond will have many lively stories to share, and so do each of us! Come and share in this conversation with friends and mission partners from across the diocese. Join us on Saturday, November 9, 2024. The study day begins at 9:30 am with a light breakfast and concludes at 1:00 pm at Resurrection Parish, 3155 Windsor Park Rd, Regina.

Free registration is requested to assist with planning. To register email mgurash@archregina.sk.ca or call 306-721-6734 by Wednesday, November 6.
