

Some important topics in the
Archdiocesan Guidelines for PPC & PFC
September 2021 edition

- Purpose of a parish – page 3 - in introduction
- Purpose of parish councils – page 3 – in introduction & background
- Prayer & missionary mandate – page 4
- Pastoral leadership in collaborative way – page 4
- Discernment as disciples – page 5
- Parish as light & nourishment for the local community – pages 5 & 6
- Organizational structures that affect PPC & PFC – page 6
- What to do if there is a disagreement between the priest and PPC or PFC – page 6 – in organizational structures
- How to use the Guidelines – page 6
- Chancellor to approve bylaws & constitution of parish – page 6 – in parish use of guidelines
- Consult Vicar General or Chancellor if parish wants exceptions to guidelines – page 6 – in parish use of guidelines
- Authority & how decisions are made – page 9
- Annual General Meeting purpose – page 9 – in functioning #1.5

* The September 2021 edition of the Archdiocesan Guidelines for PPC an PFC are to be implemented by June 2023. The Archdiocese of Regina will be doing workshops on the Guidelines for each Deanery over the next year. The days for each workshop are to be determined.